

What you will need to get started.

We have tried to find all we can on the 3rd Battalion Georgia Sharpshooters, and we have had not much luck anywhere. We know they were formed in the spring of 1863 from men of Wofford's Brigade (the 16th, 18th, 24th Georgia , Cobbs Georgia legion and Phillips Georgia legion) From that we have decided to use a mix of the uniforms used from those Georgia units.

Soldier's List:

- : Hat / Kepi, Forage cap, or slouch hat
- : Uniform sky blue, light gray or butternut pants / any shade of gray shell jacket with 6 to 9 buttons or any shade of gray frock coat / pull over 3 or 4 button shirt (there are a lot of shirts to choose from)
- : Black or plain tarred gaiters (not to be worn for dress parade, parades and or ceremonies)
- : Suspenders
- : Wool socks
- : Brogans (shoes)
- : Canteen
- : Waist belt with buckle (upside down US, CS or Georgia state buckle)

: Leathers, mix it up use some russet and some black or what ever you feel like. The Confederate army had a miss match of gear, some they manufactured and some they captured.

- : Cartridge box
- : Cartridge box sling (optional, can be worn on waist belt)
- : Cap pouch
- : Bayonet and scabbard
- : Rifle / 1861 Springfield, or 1853 3 band Enfield
- : Haversack (optional)
- : Poncho (optional)
- : Greatcoat (optional)
- : Glasses , if you need them (we highly discourage modern day glasses, every effort should be made to obtain a period pair)

Camping equipment:

(if you plan on camping you will need the following)

- : Dog tent or A frame tent (wall tents & fly for C.O. only)
- : Blanket or quilt
- : Mess kit (tin cup or mucket, fork, spoon, knife, tin plate, small fry pan)
- : Lantern
- : Camp chair

Try to keep it plain and simple, the Confederate Army was not very well supplied. So they would not of had a lot of creature comforts.

Ask before you buy. You want to make sure you get items that portray our unit and the correct time period.

Helpful hint: Start with the basic items and add to your impression as time and money allow. You don't have to get everything all at once to get started , many of the members have extra stuff that can be loaned to you when you begin.

Don't hesitate to ask.
